Norfolk Admirals 2013-14 Bios

Bob Ferguson – Assistant General Manager

Bob Ferguson enters his sixth season with the Anaheim Ducks organization and his second as Assistant General Manager of the Norfolk Admirals. Ferguson had previously spent three seasons as Assistant General Manager of the Ducks' AHL affiliates, the Iowa Chops (2008-09) and Syracuse Crunch (2010-11 – 2011-12), and also spent one season as an amateur/college scout for the Ducks (2009-10).

Ferguson has been involved in professional and amateur hockey as a player, coach or member of management for the past 36 years. Prior to joining the Anaheim organization, Ferguson spent nine years as a head coach in the professional ranks with Indianapolis (IHL, 1995-98), Florida (ECHL, 1998-2001) and Augusta (ECHL, 2005-08). In his nine seasons as a professional coach, Ferguson's teams never missed the playoffs. He is a two-time winner of the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year, winning in 1998-99 and 1999-2000 with the Florida Everblades.

A native of Kingston, Ontario, Ferguson spent 17 years as a head coach in the United States Hockey League with Sioux City (1981-90) and Des Moines (1990-95 and 2001-04). He is a three-time Gold Cup winner (U.S. 'Junior A' National Champion), five-time USHL Coach of the Year and five-time USHL General Manager of the Year. He ranks third all time in league history with 517 USHL coaching wins. During his USHL tenure, he led Sioux City (2) and Des Moines (3) to multiple Clark Cup championships.

Trent Yawney – Head Coach

The 2013-14 campaign will mark the seventh season for Trent Yawney as head coach of the Norfolk Admirals. Yawney brings 13 seasons of coaching experience between the National Hockey League and American Hockey League. He also brings over 24 years of professional hockey experience having served as a player, scout and coach.

Yawney joined the Anaheim Ducks' then-AHL affiliate, the Syracuse Crunch, as Associate Head Coach. After joining the Crunch on January 10, 2012, he guided the team to a 22-14-2-4 record – including a 15-3-1-1 record over the team's last 20 games – to jump from 14th place to seventh place in the Eastern Conference and earn a berth in the 2012 Calder Cup Playoffs. Yawney began the 2011-12 season as a pro scout for the Ducks – a position he also held in 2007-08.

Yawney's first tenure in Norfolk was as the first head coach in AHL Admirals history from 2000-01 through 2004-05. Under his leadership the Admirals went 189-144-42-25, qualifying for the Calder Cup Playoffs each season. Yawney led the Admirals to back-to-back South Division titles in 2001-02 and 2002-03 and was named 'Minor Pro Coach of the Year' by the Hockey News following the 2003-04 season.

A native of Hudson Bay, Saskatchewan, Yawney has six years of NHL coaching experience. Most recently, Yawney served as an assistant coach with the San Jose Sharks from 2008-09 through 2010-11. During his time with the Sharks, the team made two Western Conference Final appearances (2010, 2011) and won the Presidents' Trophy as the team with the NHL's best regular season record in 2008-09. Following his time in Norfolk, Yawney was head coach of the Blackhawks from 2005-07.

A defenseman, Yawney's professional career spanned from 1988-1999. Drafted by the Blackhawks in the third round (45th overall) of the 1984 NHL Entry Draft, Yawney saw action in 593 NHL contests with Chicago, Calgary and St. Louis. He netted 27 goals and 129 points with 783 penalty minutes during his NHL career. Additionally, Yawney played in 60 Stanley Cup Playoff contests, helping the Blackhawks to the Western Conference Finals in 1989 and 1990. After breaking his arm in a game in January 1999, Yawney began assisting the Blackhawks' coaching staff and later transitioned from playing to coaching full-time in 1999-2000.

Prior to turning pro, Yawney played for the Saskatoon Blades of the Western Hockey League and for the Canadian National Team. He had 56 points (14g, 42a) in 184 games with Team Canada – including the Olympic Winter games in Calgary in 1988, where he served as the team's captain.

Jarrod Skalde – Assistant Coach

The 2013-14 season is the first for Jarrod Skalde (SKAL-dee) with the Norfolk Admirals. He joined the Admirals as an assistant coach after earning the John Brophy Award as ECHL Coach of the Year in 2012-13 with the Cincinnati Cyclones.

In his third season as bench boss with the club, Skalde led the Cyclones to a North Division title with a 42-22-8 record for 92 points – a 13-point improvement over the previous season. A 42-year-old native of Niagara Falls, Ontario, Skalde guided Cincinnati to a 110-79-27 record over three seasons. During that time, he saw 68 players earn promotions to the AHL resulting in nearly 900 games played. Prior to coaching the Cyclones, Skalde guided the IHL's Bloomington PrairieThunder as head coach during the 2008-09 and 2009-10 seasons.

Selected by the New Jersey Devils in the second round of the 1989 NHL Entry Draft, Skalde played 115 NHL games between New Jersey, Anaheim, Calgary, San Jose, Dallas, Chicago, Atlanta and Philadelphia. The forward's 575-game AHL career included stops in Utica, Saint John, Baltimore, Kentucky, Chicago, Philadelphia, Utah, Springfield and San Antonio. Skalde also played professionally in the IHL, Switzerland, Sweden, Japan and Slovenia during a 16-year career that spanned 1,071 games. A five-time team captain and seven-time assistant captain, Skalde won the 1990 Memorial Cup with the OHL's Oshawa Generals and the 2001 Turner Cup with the IHL's Orlando Solar Bears.

Skalde and his wife, Erin, have two children, 15-year-old daughter True and 10-year-old son Skate.

Marty Wilford – Assistant Coach

The 2013-14 campaign will mark the sixth season for Marty Wilford with the Admirals, and his second behind the bench at Scope.

Wilford enters his second season as an assistant coach with Anaheim Ducks' AHL affiliate. Last season, Wilford served as an assistant coach with the Syracuse Crunch, helping the team to a 37-29-5-5 record and a berth in the Calder Cup Playoffs.

Wilford joined the Ducks organization after completing a 14-year playing career. He most recently spent the 2010-11 season with Fassa HC in Italy, where he led all club defensemen in scoring with 26 points (3g, 23a) in 39 games. Wilford appeared in 539 combined AHL games with Norfolk, St. John's (Maple Leafs), Milwaukee, Hartford, Manchester and Iowa (Stars), from 2000-07, tallying 275 points (47g, 228a) and 573 penalty minutes. He spent three years from in the German Elite League (DEL) from 2007-10, leading all league blueliners in points in 2009-10 (41) and assists in 2007-08 (34) and 2009-10 (38).

Wilford is the highest scoring defenseman in AHL Admirals history. He posted 32 goals and 173 points in 318 games over four seasons with Norfolk (2000-01, 2002-05). Among all players in AHL Admirals history, Wilford ranks third in scoring and first in assists (141). He also posted one goal and 16 points in 32 career Calder Cup Playoff games with the Admirals, ranking second in games played, tied for second in points and first in assists in AHL Admirals playoff history.

A native of Cobourg, Ontario, Wilford was originally selected by the Chicago Blackhawks in the sixth round, 149th overall, in the 1995 NHL Entry Draft. Prior to turning pro, Wilford spent three seasons in the Ontario Hockey League (OHL) with Oshawa, recording 96 points (23g, 73a) in 190 games from 1994-97. He finished second on the club and led all team defensemen in scoring with 62 points (19g, 43a) in 62 games during the 1996-97 campaign, helping the Generals win the J. Ross Robertson Cup as OHL Champions.
